Every lighthouse sends out rays to guide those in its' vicinity. I hope that I have been as a lighthouse keeper, sending out rays of understanding, of patience, and of love to guide you and prepare you for the task of life.

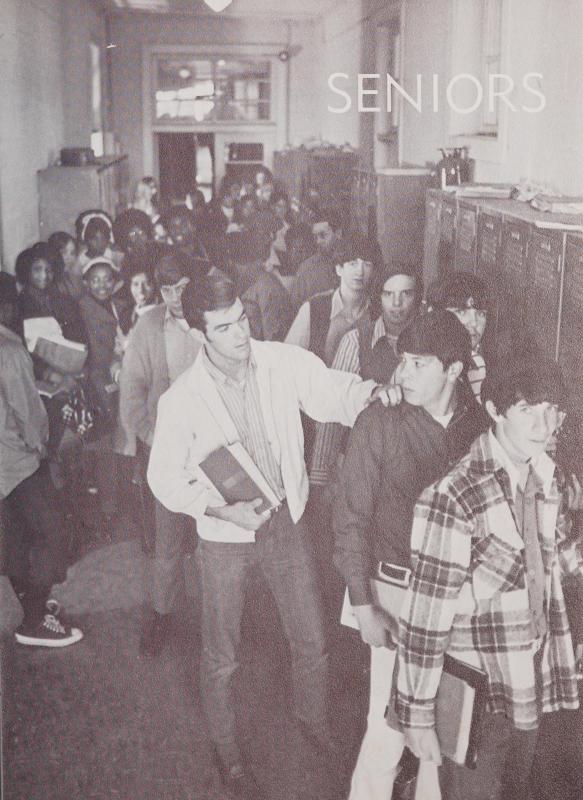

Studies were important, but sometimes we put away the books, for they aren't all there is to learning. Activities outside the classroom also played an important part in your life at Anderson Creek School in 1971-72.

The bonfire, pep-rallies, a cheering crowd . . . many things are learned through athletics as you strived to win in sportsmanship as well as in the games.

The clubs, the annual work, the dances and the car washes all cast a beam of light upon your spirits.

As you in future years begin to reminiscence, may the pages of this annual bring back fond memories . . . laughter . . . tears . . . joys . . . sorrows . . . of your high school years.

May the wisdom, knowledge, and experience gained in school this year be a beacon to guide you in the future. May you always follow the light that leads to high ambition, good citizenship, and success.

Class Colors: Burgandy and Pink

Our school days have come and almost gone, Some were too short and others too long. We anxiously await the final day, When our schoolmates divide and go their way, Excitement, happiness, and some sorrow, We must face as we plan tomorrow. Now as we walk down the halls with great pride, We hope we're ready for the world outside. As time so swiftly slips away, Preparations are made for our "Graduation Day".

Class History

In the fall of '68 fifty-nine spirited and eager freshmen entered Anderson Creek School. The halls looked several times larger than actual size and so did the teachers. Under the guidance of Mrs. Judy Adams and Mr. D.G. Gomedella we tried to cope with high school life. Our class officers were Sheila West, President; Teresa McArtan, Vice-President; Susan Thomas, Secretary; and Brenda Barefoot, Treasurer.

Returning in the fall of '69 we had fifty-five sophomores ready for new experiences. Confident and reassured, since we were no longer at the bottom of the list, we marveled at the poor grasshoppers and earthworms whose lives were sacrificed for our increased biological knowledge. Our sponsors were Mrs. Judy Adams and Mr. Jimmy Smith. Our class officers were Susan Thomas, President; Teresa McArtan, Vice-President; Cora Ferguson, Secretary; and Bob Matthews, Treasurer. Four of our students were accepted into the Beta Club. We had six players on the basketball team and one cheerleader.

Finally, in the fall of '70 we totaled forty-four jolly juniors. We planned to have the greatest year ever. Our sponsors were Mr. David Hall and Miss Marcia Leaming. Our class officers were Susan Thomas, President; Don Messer, Vice-President; Linda McFarland, Secretary; and Bonnie Ashley, Treasurer. We ordered our class rings in November and received them in March. We had ten players on the basketball teams and two cheerleaders. Our class was also represented by having ten members on the softball and baseball teams. The girl's softball team brought home the second place trophy. We put on the Junior-Senior Prom and floated through a fascinating evening of "Hawaiian Paradise." Then as the year ended we watched graduation, knowing that next year — we would step into their shoes.

Now the year is '72 and we have forty-four brilliant seniors. Our sponsors are Mrs. Carole Wooten and Mr. E.B. Taylor. Our class officers are Marsha West, President; James Thomas, Vice-President; Doris Walker, Secretary; and Teresa McArtan, Treasurer. We have eight members on the basketball teams and five cheerleaders. Teressa McArtan and Marsha West are Co-Captains for the girl's basketball team and Raymond Spears is Captain for the boy's team. Bonnie Ashley is Captain for the cheerleaders. Susan Thomas is serving as President of the Student Council. We had many money raising projects, which helped us to publish the '72 ANCRENOCA.

Suddenly we are faced with graduation. The years have been short, but the experiences have been many. We will go our separate ways, always holding to the memories of our times here.

Coach Tom Evans, Athletic Director: THE VALUE OF HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS

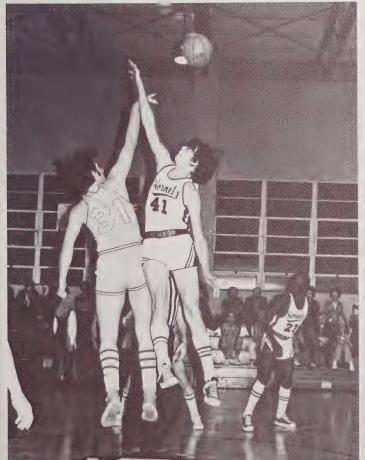

Tom Evans

There are many reasons why I feel athletics are vastly important to young people in high school. There is a great deal that a young person learns about life while in high school, and I personally believe that those people who participate in athletics achieve much more than those who don't. Why? The answer is simple. Varsity sports have many sound values which few people realize. First of all, one cannot always succeed in everything he does. Through varsity sports they learn how to be good winners and good losers. They learn how to win humbly and to keep their chins up (which comes hard at times) when they lose. Secondly, they learn to accept sound supervision from coaches. Third, they are able to accept the discipline and training necessary to achieve success. Every endeavor which they have in life will demand some aspect of training and discipline and this training achieved through sports can be of great value. Athletics, or an interest in sports, keeps a young person away from many of the temptations which could lead them toward trouble.

Yes, I believe athletics have led many, many young people to become wholesome, respected citizens.
